From the Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Lr.Rc.No.557/G3/2018, dt. 26.06.2018

ORDER:

In the circumstances reported by the Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Mangalagiri vide reference read above, Government after careful consideration of the matter and in the interest of administration, decided to effect promotion to the cadre of Addl. Superintendent of Police from the eligible candidates in the cadre of Deputy Superintendent of Police on purely ad hoc basis in relaxation of rules pending revision and finalization of inter-se-seniority, tentative allocation between the States of Andhra Pradesh and Telangana and subject to the outcome of Court cases.

2. Accordingly, Government, under Rule 10 (a) of the A.P. State and Subordinate Service Rules, 1996, hereby promote Smt. E. Supraja, Deputy Superintendent of Police as Additional Superintendent of Police as laid down in the Special Rules governing the post of Superintendent of Police (NC) in the scale of pay of Rs. 52,090 -1,03,290/- purely on ad hoc basis and in relaxation of Rule (5) and (6) of said rules subject to the following conditions;

(i) The promotion is purely on temporary and on ad hoc basis and liable for termination at any time without assigning any reason or without notice and pending preparation of regular panel at a later date.

(ii) This promotion is against pending final allocation of the DSP (Civil) to SP (NC) (Civil) by the Govt.of India as per Section 77 of AP Re-Organization Act, 2014. Further, the allocation to a particular State will also not entail any consequential claim regarding seniority due to the ad hoc promotion.

(iii) Pending revision of seniority of the officer in the category of DSP (Civil) to Superintendent of Police (NC) and pending finalization of inter se seniority.

(iv) Subject to the outcome of all the Court cases which are sub-judice at present.

(v) This ad hoc promotion will have no bearing on seniority and will not be a ground to claim benefit of seniority or promotion to any post or service including IPS through any feeder channel.

(vi) Subject to review of the panels at any time, in the cadre of DSP (Civil) to SP (NC) (Civil).

(vii) The appointment is subject to outcome of the OAs/WPs, SLPs pending before the APAT/High Court or Supreme Court of India.

(viii) The appointment is purely temporary under emergency provisions and does not confer any right of any kind on the individual who is liable to be reverted at any time without prior notice and without assigning any reasons thereof and the excess amount drawn, if any, in this category will be recovered.

(ix) The Officer shall not be regarded as a probationer or be entitled by reason only by such appointment to any preferential claim for future appointment to such service, class or category.

(x) The Officer appointed whether or not he/she possesses the qualification prescribed for the service, class or category to which he / she is appointed be replaced as soon as possible by the other individual who is entitled for the appointment under the rules.

(xi) The appointment by promotion is also subject to joining of the office in the promoted post within the stipulated time of (15) days from the date of receipt of the order of appointment and promotion as specified in Rule 11 (b) of A.P. State and Subordinate Service Rules, 1996 failing which he/she would forfeit the right of promotion to the cadre of Superintendent of Police (NC).

3. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, shall take immediate further necessary action in the matter.
